CHARLEROI HIGH DISPOSES OF ELIZABETH IN EASY FASHION

Hardest Games of the Season are Yet to Come on Local's Schedule

ATTENDANCE COMPLIMENTARY

The Elizabeth high school basketball team was defeated in rather a one-sided game, last evening, by the Charleroi quintet, on the local gymnasium floor. There was a most complimentary attendance. In fact, no criticism can be found with the patronage bestowed on the team this season. Every game has been played in a capacity house, and this has proven very gratifying to the officials in charge of high school athletics. It is to be hoped that this condition will continue. The hardest games of the season's schedule are yet to be played and it behooves the Charleroi boys to put forth the best they have in basketball, in order that they might win a fair share of the games.

Last evening's contest was a good one to look at. Enthusiasm ran high, notwithstanding the fact that the game did not figure in the scholastic league. The visitors made a splendid appearance, being athletic in build and clad in attractive playing outfits. While their floor work was productive of thrills, at times, they displayed unusual deficiency in their basketball work. Elizabeth had many chances in this regard, but the invulnerability of Charleroi's defense proved too much for them. This was evidenced by the fact that they were able to secure but two field goals in the whole game. An unfortunate accident occurred in the second quarter, when Snowden, the diminutive forward, suffered a strained ligament in his left leg. The injury proved quite a painful one, and Snowden had to be carried from the floor.

Coach Stahlman's boys got busy right at the start of play. But little scoring was done during the first period by either team, and Charleroi led by a score of 5 to 2, when the whistle blew. They increased their lead in the second quarter, and were never in danger of being overhauled by their opponents. Elizabeth found it a practical impossibility to get the ball into the basket, but Charleroi fared considerably better. "Dooley" Burnett, at center, was the bright and shining light of the evening. He generally put in an appearance from nowhere, so to speak, and sneaked the pellet into the basket. His five field goals tell of the efficiency of his work. He was ably supported by Wagner and "Peck" Webster, both of whom secured two field goals apiece. Wagner has not, as yet, struck his stride as a foul shooter. Just as wine improves with age, so does he improve as the game progresses, but he should strive to correct his apparent weakness in the early part of the contest. With this removed, he would prove one of the most capable foul shooters in the league. Practically every member of the squad had a part in the game, except Stephens, who was slightly in-

PACKARD COMPANY RE-EMPLOYS 1,000 MEN

Coincident with the announcement of the regularly quarterly dividend to preferred stockholders on Friday the Packard Motor Car Company announced the re-employment of an additional 1,000 men, effective immediately. The company has been operating with a force of 3,000 men for several weeks.

SUNDAY OFFERING FOR FOREIGN RELIEF

The recent action of the Ministerial Association in asking that Sunday February 13, be a day when the needy of earth should be remembered, has met with a ready response. Already checks are coming in from those whose hearts have been touched. Each church will take this offering for the famine stricken ones, and send it through its own agency. That the needs of the Near East and China are pressing, no one can doubt. When any one is compelled to subsist on grass and the bark of trees, those whose tables are loaded with good food are duty bound to give of their plenty to those in need. Many, we are told, will die before relief can be given them, but others can be saved, so a generous offering should go on its mission of blessing, gathered by the churches of Charleroi, on the coming Sabbath.

MONESSEN PROPOSES BIG BOND ISSUE

Monessen council proposes a bond issue of $250,000, which has already passed first and second readings, and final action will be taken within a short time. It is proposed to apportion the issue as follows: $40,000 for the garbage disposal plant; $50,000 for the improvement of eed avenue; $100,000 for grading, curbing and paving of certain streets; $25,000 for fire fighting apparatus and $35,000 for the resurfacing of certain streets. The question will be submitted to the electors of the borough for approval or rejection.

SAW GERMAN PAY HONOR TO ROOSEVELT

Capt. James Gee, of Monongahela, who, while in the service as First Lieutenant of Company A, 11th Infantry, 28th Division, was captured by the Germans near the river Marne in France, July 15, 1917, will be a guest of the Pittsburgh Press Club next Friday evening, February 18. At that time Capt. Gee will tell for the benefit of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., what part American prisoners played in the funeral ceremonies in honor of Quentin Roosevelt, who lost his life in the aviation service while on duty with the American army in France.

Capt. Gee with other prisoners, was being taken to the rear, when suddenly the commander of the party ordered "Halt," and then bringing his squad to "Attention," the members stood in this position while a German burying party paid honors to the son of the former President Roosevelt, who was being buried on French soil. A splendid picture of Capt. Gee, and Col. Thompson, of the 11th, appeared in the Gazette Times Friday morning.

PLAY BIG SOCCER GAME AT DUNLEVY

Followers of soccer football are expected to gather in large numbers at Dunlevy, on the 13th inst., at which time the Dunlevy team will try conclusions with the "kickers" from Sturgeon. It will be the first game of a series of three to determine which team is the better of the two. It will also be a trial of skill between teams representing different leagues. The Dunlevy has just won the championship in the Pittsburgh Press League, while the Sturgeon team has been quite a actor in the Miners' League.

The teams have met twice before this year. Dunlevy defeating Sturgeon two goals to nothing in the National elimination, while Sturgeon defeated Dunlevy by a score of 2 to 0 in the West Penn series.

On the 13th the two teams will begin the three-game series with a hope of demonstrating which organization is the better. It is expected that one of the largest crowds of soccer football players that has ever assembled in Dunlevy will witness the game.

TRIMMERS TAKE THREE FROM CUBS

"Mac" Middleton's rejuvenated Cubs won three games from the "Trimmers" on the Elks' bowling alleys last night. Capt. Middleton and "Diddy" Atkins composed the "wrecking crew" which was the big noise in the three-ply killing. Doc Herrick's rabbit foot must have been out of working order by the way he was reaching in his left vest pocket each time he finished bowling a frame. Roy Carson and Guy Woodward rolled good "ducks" for the losers. Summary:

MINER HIT BY AUTO; DIES FROM INJURIES

Fred Veschio, aged 35, a miner, while on his way home from work in the Catsburg mine, in Monongahela, Thursday afternoon, was run down by an auto driven by Neil Yohe of Monongahela, who was on his way home from Donora. Veschio was dragged for quite a distance. He was picked up by Yohe and rushed to the hospital, but the man died 15 minutes after reaching the institution. Yohe reported the incident to Chief of Police Parnicott of Monongahela, who allowed him to depart on his own recognizance.

Allen Township and Dunlevy Borough will File Indemnifying Bond

SPEERS BORO TO HEAR FROM

Prospects are brightening for the construction of the highway along the river between Speers borough and Stockdale, and if the authorities of Speers borough will go along in the way of indemnifying property owners in their municipalities for damages, everything will be in good shape for beginning the work.

Tuesday night last the directors of the Chamber of Commerce held a meeting with representatives of Allen township and Speers borough at the municipal building, at which time it was stated that the road would be built just as soon as bonds were filed to indemnify property owners for any damages that might arise. It was stated that these damages would amount to about $13,500 in Allen township, and about $2,000 in Dunlevy. No estimate was made of Speers borough at the time, but it has since been learned that $1,500 would cover all such claims.

Another meeting was held Thursday night with Dunlevy authorities, at which time it was agreed to meet with the Dunlevy council Friday evening.

Accordingly last night Walter Byerly, R. C. Mounts and R. H. Rush met with the council of Dunlevy, at which time a resolution prevailed that Dunlevy would take care of any damages resulting property in the borough by reason of the construction of the proposed highway.

This morning word was received by the local committee that the road supervisors of Allen township had also adopted a resolution agreeing to take care of any damages that might be caused to property owners in the township by reason of construction work. This leaves only Speers borough to hear from, and it is confidently expected that the council of that municipality will agree to assume its share of the burden, so that this important stretch of roadway may be placed under contract at the earliest possible date.

COAL COMPANY WILL BUILD NEW TIPPLE

The Warwick Coal company of Pittsburg, on Thursday, received a Federal permit for the construction of a coal tipple, storage platform, ice breakers and to drive mooring piles on the left bank of the Monongahela river at a point in Greene county a short distance above Lock No. 7.

John Edmunds, colored, before Justice of the Peace Paul R. Nutt, on a charge of disorderly conduct, was held to answer at court. In default of bail to the amount of $500 the accused will be taken to jail.

CATT'S SPORT KITTEN.

Former Governor Sidney J. Catts, of Florida, where the rattler rattleth and the pineapple pineth, and the alligator mourneth for its first born, is out for protection good and plenty and none may say him nay. So long as the Republicans remain in power he intends to devote one of his lives to the protection of Southern products. Said he at the convention of the Southern Tariff Association in Atlanta recently: "If there is to be a protective tariff bill at all, the country should have one that will protect every section and not one that would benefit one and hurt the other." Mr. Catts must have had visions of Republican reprisals because the Democratic law placed northern and western products on the free list and protected Southern goods, but he need have no fear on that score. "The effect of a non-protective tariff on Southern products was already being felt in Florida," said he, "especially on citrus fruits and Irish potatoes, two of the principal products of Florida which were being imported into the State free of duty and sold cheaper than the Florida growers could raise them." For years Brother Catts was a supporter of the free trade party, but there is a great light dawning on his neck of the woods and the Florida cracker has become a "you-need-a" when he discusses with his neighbor the subject of protection.

J. B. KEEPS NAGGING.

John Bull keeps up his discrimination against American trade. Freight rates from New York to the United Kingdom are fixed by the Eastern Freight Conference at $1.00 per 100 pounds on many commodities, while from New York to French and Channel ports rates for the same commodities vary from 20 to 50 cents per 100 pounds. From New York to Dutch ports the rate is 30 cents. The American exporters are getting around this routing shipments of goods to United Kingdom via the Continent. Possibly a little taste of maximum and minimum tariff might bring John Bull to his senses. As soon as that is proposed some of our weak sisters will accuse us of holding a club over European competition, ignoring the fact that England is belaboring us with her big stick.

TAKE THE PLUG—GIMME THE CHAW.

It is suggested that ultimately it may be best for the people to keep the tax and let the government have the income. This suggestion comes from the New York World, chief defender of the administration under which present tax conditions arose. As a matter of fact, some of the larger tax payers would have been better off if the government had taken the income and paid the taxpayers the tax. Strange situation, isn't it?

TOOT SWEET.

France decreased her unfavorable trade balance by eleven billion francs in 1920, compared with 1919. That means that the value of the French franc will soon begin to climb. Clemenceau told Europe to go to work, and France took him at his word.

Even so adroit and ever-ready a politician as Lloyd-George virtually confesses that he is stumped, for he says of what looks like a world-dead-lock: "All the Allied nations are agreed that Germany must pay her indemnity by exports. All the Allied nations are agreed that they do not want German exports. Every nation wants to protect its own industries. Every nation wants to collect its debts. Germany has not gold enough to pay the Allies, the Allies have not gold enough to pay America and everybody wants to be paid in gold."

Professor Holznacht of Vienna announces that by the use of Roentgen rays he can rejuvenate aging women even to the extent of clearing complexion, brightening eyes, freshening the voice and eradicating wrinkles. If he can be will make Vienna once more a prosperous capital, for he will attract feminine Ponce de Leons of wealth from all quarters of the planet. But the rosh had better not begin until there is more convincing assurance than the professor's words provide.

At a recent sale of a private library in New York $2,410 was paid for Captain John Smith's "General Historie of Virginia, New England and the Summer Isles" Worth that much to the wealthy collector, perhaps, but of less value to the historian because documents written by contemporaries have been unearthed indicating that Smith was a good deal of a romancer as well as a great boaster.

Dr. Morton Prince, the Boston psychologist, writes of a patient "afflicted with that inability—which is so common and causes so much disturbance and unhappiness in so many people—to reconcile and adjust one's self to the actual situation of one's life and accept it." The world is full of such "patients," for to accept things as they are is a large part of the battle of every one's life.

Simple Food Agreed With Them. The wealth of the Ceylonese is usually estimated by the number of coconut trees they own. Native boats from the Maldive Islands sometimes arrive in Ceylon, built, rigged, provisioned and laden with the produce of the coco-palms. A shipwrecked crew was cast upon the South Sea Islands, where the party remained for several months, living solely on coconuts and a little boiled fish; when they returned they had all increased in weight.

Arbitrage.

This is a term applied to transactions taking advantage of difference in price in different markets for the same articles. At the same time that the trader buys in the cheaper market he sells in the dearer. The margin between the two prices must be more than the cost of exchange in order to show a profit. Arbitrage transactions are usually in bullion or coin, bills and exchanges or stocks and bonds.

Symbolism of Animals.

In the symbolism of animals, the ant typifies frugality and provision; the bear, ill temper and uncouthness; the bull, straightforwardness; the bulldog, pertinacity; the butterfly, sportiveness and living in pleasure; the dove, innocence and harmlessness; the fox, cunning, artifice; the goose, conceit and folly; the grasshopper, old age; the mule, obstinacy; the owl, wisdom; the peacock, pride; the swan, grace.

Most Eggs in New Moon Period.

Experiments have shown that more eggs will hatch if the hen is set when the moon is new, or very close to that period, and that the young chicks hatched at that time will be stronger and more vigorous, and will grow more rapidly. On the other hand, chicks hatched when there is no moon are often more weakly and do not make such strong and vigorous fowls, no, are they such good egg-layers.

Eskimos Regard Life Lightly.

The Eskimos, who have not yet come under Christian influence, are said to be filthy and treacherous. They practice polygamy and infanticide, and they kill off the aged and infirm when they are unable to hunt. But the Christian Eskimos are clean and self-respecting, and 75 per cent of them can read and write in their own language.

His Appetite With Him.

A story is told of a jockey who after the race for which he had been long starving himself went to a hotel and ate a leg of mutton. When the waiter asked if he would like some sweets or cheese, he replied: "No, I never eat sweets. But if you have another leg of mutton I think I could manage it."

CHAUTAUQUA CIRCLE HOLDS CELEBRATION

Friday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Pfeighardt, the Magic City Chautauqua Circle celebrated Lincoln's birthday anniversary and Valentine day by exercises, both literary and musical, in keeping with the events. The lesson for study was France in the closing days of late war, and the thrilling days were lived over again as the military men passed in review. Fitting tributes were given each for their heroic work and sacrifices for the allied cause. The musical program was much enjoyed and the local references made a pleasant closing for the evening.

Safety Pins Long in Use.

Safety pins can be traced back to the Fifteenth century B. C., when pins were made of bone and bent over, shaped like the modern safety pins. Many of them have been found in graves of that period. Since then the safety pin has passed through many changes and been made of various metals. An average of 1,000,000 gross of safety pins are now manufactured yearly.

Chairs of Historic Interest.

There is still kept in the museum at Dorchester, England, the judge's chair--a very substantial article--used by Jeffreys at the assize at which he tried the Monmouth rebels after Sedgemoor, in 1683; and in Moreton-in-the-Marsh may be seen the elaborately upholstered chair and footstool used by Charles I at his trial. They are kept in a glass case.

New Alloy Resists Corrosion.

Possessing the color and appearance of nine-carat gold, a new alloy recently exhibited in England also has the property of resisting corrosion from chemical fumes or sea water. It has the ductility and malleability of its precious counterpart and a tensile strength of 20 tons per square inch. It may be rolled, drawn, wrought or cast.

New Perch for the Fisherman.

A new sport followed to some extent along the Pacific coast is that of fishing from airships of the "Blimp" type. The fishermen ascend to a height where they can readily spot a school of fish and then they descend and drift along with the fish. Hovering over the water they pull in the fish as fast as they can throw over their lines.

Origin of Manitoba.

The name Manitoba sprang from the union of two Indian words, Manitou (the Great Spirit), and Waba (the "narrows" of the lake). This strait was a sacred place to the Crees and Sauteurs, who called them "Manito-Waba," or the "Great Spirit's Narrows."

Halloween.

The celebration of Halloween dates back to antiquity. It was a holiday combining classic mythology, Druidic beliefs and superstitions of that far-away time. The change to a social anniversary was gradual and finally became a recognized time for general merriment.

She Wanted 'Em Specific.

Titlie Clinger says the reason she didn't last long as salesgirl at the jewelry counter was because when a man came in and said he wanted something nice for his baby she asked him if his baby was a boy, a girl or a chicken. Dallas News.

NERVOUS FAINTING SPELLS

Mrs. Werner Tells How They Yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Camden, N. J.--"Before my baby was born I was run down and weak, had pains in my back and stomach, was very nervous and would have fainting spells. I certainly suffered awfully with those nervous fainting spells. I did not know anyone at times and used to scream. A doctor treated me for the spells but did not seem to do much good. I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills before so I began taking them again. I soon felt a change and could do my work without pain and was cured of those nervous spells. Now I have a nice fat baby girl and had an easy time at birth, thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."--Mrs. WILLIAM C. WERNER, 1216 Van Hook St., Camden, N. J.

When a wife finds her energies are flagging, she is weak, nervous, suffers from backache, the "blues" she should build her system up at once by taking that standard woman's medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as did Mrs. Werner.

If there is anything about your condition you do not understand write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., in regard to your health.

Questions.

1. Are colds contagious?
2. What are the frequent sequelae or after effect of a cold?
3. What means may be taken to prevent a cold?

COMMON COLDS

The nose, the vestibule of the lungs has a number of bony projections covered with a membrane crowded with small vessels filled with heated blood, which stand out like radiators to warm the breath in air, before it passes into the throat and lungs.

In health, this membrane constantly secretes a thin fluid which serves the two-fold purpose of lubricating the parts, and assisted by the air growth in the nose, of capturing and preventing the passage of germs into the further air passages which terminate in the lungs.

As long as conditions are normal the mucous membrane with its secretion acts as an adequate protection against disease germs and there is little danger of their penetration beneath its surface. But when for any reason the circulation is interfered with and the vitality of the part lessened, disease germs which were before unable to do harm, penetrate the surface and the result is what is known as "Cold in the Head," which frequently extends into the throat and the lungs, often results in pneumonia and death.

The Vaso Motor Nerves, which control the contraction and expansion of arteries play an important part in the constant warfare which is being waged by the defensive forces of the body against its silent enemies—the disease germs. The blush which suffuses the face of the timid girl, the pallor which marks sudden fright and the deep red flush which denotes anger in the man, are all caused by the action of the Vaso Motors, either in causing the arteries to open up and allow a greater inflow of blood, or to become smaller and lessen it. In whatever part of the body the Vaso Motor stimulates the blood vessels to contraction, there is a decreased blood supply which means lessening of nutrition and a consequent lowering of resisting power. The Vaso Motors have a tendency to play in pairs, particularly those governing man's hands which are alike, as the eyes, the hands, etc.

The Vaso Motor Nerves not only appear to work in pairs in members which are alike, but certain portions of the body sympathetically respond to stimulation in certain other portions of the body. As for instance, there is a response between the feet and the throat. Though the body be warmly clad, cold, wet feet will result in a depression in the circulation and general nutrition of the throat and pharynx, with the frequent sequence of sore throat.

The nape of the neck has a sympathetic relation to the whole head. Frequently a draft upon the nape of the neck is followed by a common cold. When the resisting power of the mucous membrane is lowered the germs begin to develop rapidly. Nature attempts to expel them by sneezing, then comes a short period of dryness of the membrane, which is followed by a watery discharge. If the cold stop at this stage it is attended with little discomfort and no danger. But there is a tendency for the germs to go further. Should they go upward into the upper sinuses of the nose, between and back of the eyebrows, into the cavities back of the cheek or along the bony tubes which lead from the throat to the ears, serious complications which may require long and continued special treatment is apt to follow. Should they make their way backward—the throat and lungs may become infected—making an open road for germs of pneumonia or tuberculosis.

When a cold has once started, the germs become more virulent and when coughed or sneezed much more likely to penetrate the mucous membrane of other persons. Therefore, on account of this communicability, persons who are suffering from what is known as a common cold should avoid close contact with other persons and should never cough or sneeze without covering the mouth and nose with a handkerchief. As the germs are contained in the saliva, care should be exercised about using drinking vessels, knives, forks and spoons after any person having a cold.

The secretions of the mouth and nose come in frequent contact with the hand. Therefore, "Clean Hands"—at all times—especially before eating.

Whatever depresses the physical forces of the body—predisposes it to colds. As for instance, insufficient food or sleep, over fatigue—of all kinds—overwork, either mental or physical.

To guard against colds, clothing should be of such texture as to permit skin ventilation—warm feet—over shoes in damp weather, proper house ventilation with the temperature never above 70 degrees. Keep the skin clear and the muscular system toned by systematic daily exercise.

Crowded places such as street cars, and public gatherings, usually poorly ventilated and over heated are ideal either for contracting or spreading colds.

If a common cold shows a tendency to extend to the throat and lungs, consult a physician at once.

FORDSON

More and more every day the demand for the Fordson Tractor increases because the Fordson has demonstrated so much usefulness, so much economy, so much labor-saving, along so many lines of activity. The farmer has discovered that not only for plowing, harrowing, discing, seeding, mowing, reaping and threshing, but a multitude of other uses; cutting wood, feed, grinding feed; churning, washing, furnishing water in the house, making electric light possible in the house, and around the barns; so that, as a matter of fact, there is hardly an hour in the day when the Tractor cannot be made a veritable servant. There is ditching to do, there are roads to fix, and so on all down along the line of the numerous calls that constantly face the farmer the Fordson steps in and does the work, shoulders the complete burden of the toil and hard work, one might almost say 'drudgery.'

This is the age of machinery, the day when man plans the day's work, or the year's work, and then turns it over to the Tractor to execute. Get the book, "The Fordson at Work," because it is free. If you cannot call for it, write and we will mail it to you. The Fordson is not only a necessity to every farmer but is an established utility along a great many commercial lines. Our allotment is limited to so many each month. Let's have your order now
